

Summary Introduction to My Loved One

Your loved one with rare epilepsy is a very special person with many positive qualities and gifts. Use the form below to tell others what makes your loved one laugh and smile, what activities bring them joy, what is challenging for them, and of course, information about their medical challenges. Providing this important information is needed to help others to provide the very best care with dignity, respect, and appreciation for all your loved one has to offer.

Insert pic of loved one here

Say HELLO to:

!

is years old and has

A little about me...

My family:

My favorite people are:

My favorite places are:

My favorite thing to do is:

What others like about me:

Things that bring me joy:

Things that are difficult for me:

Things that make me feel frustrated:

Things that help me feel safe and loved:

How to support me when I am stressed, sick, or hospitalized:

Now that you are better acquainted with _____, here is a summary of the most challenging aspects of their life.

Mobility
Communication
Bathroom procedures
Behavior
Shower/bath time
Dental hygiene
Bedtime/sleep
Mealtime/eating/snacks
Allergies
Seizure triggers
Seizure types and rescue protocol

Use this page to insert a picture(s) of your loved one, family, or anything else you may want to share:

Optional:
Upload Photo Here

Optional:
Upload Photo Here

Optional:
Upload Photo Here

Optional:
Upload Photo Here

Optional:
Upload Photo Here

Optional:
Upload Photo Here